Mayor Patrick Madden Statement on Conclusion of Trial Involving the Death of Former Troy Employee Bill Chamberlain

TROY, NY – Mayor Patrick Madden has issued the following statement following the conclusion of the trial involving the death of former City of Troy Director of Operations William Chamberlain:

“We continue to remember Bill Chamberlain for who he was: a proud husband, father and dedicated public servant who spent 30 years serving the residents of the City of Troy with distinction and professionalism. My hope is that today’s verdict will bring some closure to the Chamberlain family following this difficult and painful chapter in their lives. I want thank all the law enforcement agencies and the District Attorney’s office for their tireless pursuit of justice on behalf of the Chamberlain family and the entire Troy community.”
