City of Troy Suspends Metered Parking in Downtown Troy

All Regular Parking Regulations and Alternate-Side Parking Rules Remain In Effect Citywide

TROY, NY – Mayor Patrick Madden today announced effective immediately the suspension of metered parking in downtown Troy until further notice to assist downtown businesses and residents impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak.

All regular parking regulations and posted alternate-side parking will remain in effect. Normal parking rules and regulations will remain in effect for all city-owned parking lots and garages. Residents are also reminded to observe all alternate-side parking restrictions to ensure regular garbage & recycling collection and street sweeping operations can continue.

Residents should continue to monitor the City website, Facebook, or Twitter accounts for changes or updates regarding the status of metered parking.
